Our leadership, expertise and endless commitment to our client's success are the reason why institutions around the world proudly identify Matthews as the only choice for their cremation memorial solutions.

Matthews Cremation is now extending its expertise with the Lasting Memories™ memorial program to churches, universities and other institutions. Our turn-key system delivers a comprehensive memorialization program to organizations that craft a lasting tribute to its members while building long term residual revenue for the mission of the institution. Matthews has long been the leader within the Death Care industry for establishing appropriate and meaningful memorial solutions for funeral homes and cemeteries. It is only now that we are intentionally extending our services to this exciting new market. During our consultations, whether we focus on an exterior or interior memorial solution, our program captures a final memorial and builds a solid legacy for generations to come. From initial design through construction to a full array of memorial products and accessories, Matthews takes you from concept to dedication with a majestic final tribute and everlasting resting place for your alumni or congregational members.

Thank you for allowing us this opportunity to be a partner in your important project. We are honored by the association and look forward to being an important influence in the success of your memorial legacy.

Sincerely,
The Matthews Team
